

ENTERTAIN FOR THE BETROTHED COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krojanker, of 1221 East Superior street, entertained at a reception Monday evening at their home in honor of their daughter, Rose, and her fiance, Morris Freimuth.

Receiving with Miss Krojanker and Mr. Freimuth were Mr. and Mrs. Krojanker and Mr. and Mrs. Ignace Freimuth, parents of the groom-elect. All the women of the receiving party wore white, the two elder women's gowns being unrelieved by color; Miss Krojanker wore a costume of white Brussels's net over blue taffeta.

Miss Clara Shapiro and Miss Edith Freimuth served the punch; assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. Herman, Mrs. P. H. Levy, Miss Shipman and Miss Goldine Krojanker.

An exceedingly beautiful arrangement of American beauties and palms and music from a full orchestra stationed behind a wall of flowers made the evening a delightful one for the many callers.

No date has been set for the wedding.
