

CHURCH WOMEN SUBMIT REPORTS

Semi-Annual Meeting of Baptist Church Societies Proves of Interest.

The semi-annual meeting of the women's societies of the Lake Superior Baptist association was held yesterday at the Central Baptist church on West First street. The morning session was devoted entirely to the reading of reports from the various Baptist church of Duluth and Superior, which showed them all to be in a flourishing condition.

Owing to the absence of Miss Mattson of Superior, who was to have spoken, a letter from Miss Anna Gooch of Kent Bung, Burma, was read in the afternoon. Another from Mrs. Anna Giffin, formerly of Duluth, but now a missionary in India, proved of decided interest. One on "Voices From Within," was read by Mrs. A. E. Peterson of Superior. Mrs. Chandler was heard in "Meditations of the Treasurer." Miss Soderberg, the Finnish city missionary, talked on her work on Garfield avenue.

MISSES DUNCAN HOSTESSES.

Miss Grace Duncan and Miss Mabel Duncan were hostesses at cards Monday evening at their home, 131 West Third street. Five hundred was played at eight tables and the prizes taken by Miss Florence Brewer and Mrs. E. C. Collins, and the men's favors were won by George Suffel and Ray Higgins.

OLD FASHIONED PARTY.

The gymnasium classes of the Young Women's Christian association will enjoy an old fashioned party Friday evening of this week at the association rooms. Each girl is to appear in an old fashioned dress and to take her own lunch. All the members of the gymnasium classes are invited and a jolly time is anticipated.

KARON-WOLF.

Miss Lena Karon and W. V. Wolf were married yesterday at the old Masonic temple. A supper was served after the ceremony and a dance was held in the evening.
