

SOCIETY

Miss Nellie M. Brown and Arthur J. Longtin both of Duluth were married Saturday afternoon, Feb. 23, at the First M. E. parsonage, East End. Rev. U. E. Villars performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Longtin will make their home in Duluth where Mr. Longtin is connected with a paper.

The pupils of the John Ericsson school gave a delightful entertainment Thursday afternoon at the school. The program consisted of vocal and instrumental music and recitations.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Watkins entertained the members of the "Cosy Club" at dinner Tuesday evening.

The members of the athletic association of the Normal gave a reception Friday evening at the school at which the Haywood basketball team were guests of honor.

Mr. Lawrence Banks entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of the Haywood basketball team.

The Missionary society of the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George Hislop, 1616 John avenue. The leader of the afternoon was Mrs. W. A. Hoycraft and the subject was "The United Study of Missions." At the close of the afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Carl M. Wilson; vice president, Mrs. L. K. Grimes; secretary, Mrs. F. E. Stanbury; treasurer, Mrs. Ella Robinson.

Clan Cameron of the order of Scottish Clans gave a delightful entertainment and smoker Monday evening at Agen hall. The program rendered was excellent and an enjoyable evening was spent by all those present.

The Tourist club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Robert Wardman, 2123 Hammond avenue. Mrs. H. Kruse will be the guide and will take the "Tourists" to Killarney by coach, visiting Cork and Blarney Castle.

Mrs. John Webb of the Loring Terrace entertained informally Thursday afternoon. Whist was played at three tables.

Miss Nancy MacKellar, 1709 John avenue, gave a linen shower Tuesday evening at her home in honor of Miss Georgia Macdonald, who is to be a bride of the week.

Mrs. Thomas Veitch, 2007 Hughitt avenue, was surprised Friday evening by a party of 30 ladies, members of the Forester and D. of P. lodges, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The hostess was presented with a handsome set of table linen by her unexpected guests, who played cards for several hours. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. George Freeman, 1022 Oakes avenue, was made hostess Wednesday afternoon by about a dozen of her friends, members of the D. of P. lodge, in honor of her birthday anniversary, and the eighth anniversary of her initiation into the lodge. Refreshments were served and cards played during the afternoon, prizes going to Mesdames Rogers, E. Donley and S. Taylor and Miss Gwen Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenney, 1530 Washington avenue, entertained a number of friends last Saturday in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Kenney with a number of pieces of cut glass. Cards were the amusement of the evening, favors going to Mrs. Maddox and Mrs. Martin, J. Aver capturing the free cut. Miss Katie Maddox rendered several enjoyed piano selections.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Siegel of Hammond avenue were host and hostess at a brilliant private masquerade party in honor of Mrs. Siegel's sister, Miss Deborah Bloom of Minneapolis at Odd Fellows' hall Thursday evening. All present were masked as well as wearing fancy costumes, the host as "Little Lord Fauntleroy" making quite a hit. After dancing, refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Deborah Bloom guest of honor; Misses Ross Cohen, Anna Taran, Bessie Stern, Mamie Siegel, Fanny Abrahamson, Elsie Holzberg, Sophie Weinstein, Fanny Light, Alice Holzberg, Libble Holzberg, Molly Cohen, Ray Holzberg, Florence Sterns; Messrs. B. Cohen, Herman Aronson, A. Holzberg, Sam Weinstein, Isadore Cohen, Julius L. Cohen, Manie Averbook, Barney Tremblatt, Manie Stern, Cassel Marcus, Abe Garon; Messrs and Mesdames E. Siegel, Ed Lasky, Louis Lasky, J. L. Pollock, H. Stern of Superior, and the following of Duluth: Julius Siegel, Misses Mamie Siegel, Fannie Abrahamson, Sophie Weinstein and Fannie Light.