

WEST END IN BRIEF

Warren Smith has gone to Montana, where he has taken a position with the Northern Pacific Railway company.

August B. Witte and A. Høglund, of the Fedje Clothing company, are spending a few weeks on their claims in the Fond du Lac Indian reservation.

Elof Bergholm is attending to business matters at Ely.

M. A. Ferguson has returned from Chicago where he has been visiting friends and relatives, and taken up his position as yard clerk for the Northern Pacific.

Miss Louise Therrier has taken a position in Norgard's restaurant.

Miss May Jones has gone for a short visit with relatives at Ely.

Louis Goldish has gone to Calumet Mich., where he will be in charge of the Majestic theater.

The funeral of Erick Anderson, who died last Monday, was held yesterday afternoon from the undertaking rooms of R. R. Forward & Co., Twentieth avenue west and Superior street. The services were in charge of Rev. H. K. Madsen. Interment was at Park Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Charles St. Mary, 2805 West Helm street, was a victim of a runaway Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. St. Mary and child were out driving and stopping at Thirty-eighth avenue west and Oneota street. Mr. St. Mary got out and took the little one. Just as Mrs. St. Mary was alighting the horse became frightened and ran away. Mrs. St. Mary's leg got caught in the vehicle and was broken.

The Fire department No. 2 was called out yesterday to quench a fire in the chicken house at 2008 West Michigan street, belonging to R. M. Stitt. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is believed that some boys had been playing about it with matches. The damage was very small.

Carl Teseth has resigned his position with J. Fink, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Second street, and taken another with the Hall Painting company.

Miss Myrtle Perry entertained the choir of the Westminster Presbyterian church at her home, 2833 West Third street. The evening was passed in a social way, games were played and refreshments served.

Douglas McCollock, who has been confined to his home, 2623 West Third street, for the past two weeks with grip, has recovered.