

SALESMAN SUES TO RECOVER COMMISSIONS

W. E. Danforth filed a complaint in the municipal court yesterday against Moses Cook to recover $317 which he alleges is due him from the defendant. The complaint states that he entered into a contract with Cook on Nov. 19 to clerk in his clothing store at $100 a month. Later, it is said, he entered into a contract to sell clothing in the woods for the same salary and a 10 per cent commission, with all expenses paid. He says that in 1906 he sold $929 worth of goods, and that in 1907 his sales amounted to $2,340.50, making the total $3,170. He declares that he has received his wages and expenses, but that $317 is still due him for commissions.
