

season of it on Sept. 18, 1906. Lindgren's attorneys rested their case yesterday afternoon and the defense started yesterday morning.

Plead Not Guilty.

Joseph Conkovitch, who was charged with resisting arrest, entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Carter yesterday morning and Henry H. Pond entered a similar plea to an indictment charging him with grand larceny of the second degree. Both cases are bound over to be tried at this court.

Goes to Fergus Falls.

Federal Judge Page Morrill will leave this morning for Fergus Falls, Minn., where he will hold the United States district court during this month.

He Gets Notice.

G. A. Sherwood, general agent for Duluth for the Wisconsin Central, received official notice yesterday morning that his company is going to build into this city. He says that he expects that the road will be running in here in 12 months, and that if Mr. Pond, the general passenger agent, gets the kind of passenger equipment that he has his seen on the head of the lakes people will have cause to admire it.

Boilermaker Injured.

Charles Gann, a boilermaker employed by the D. M. & N., at Duluth, fell from an engine at Proctor last night, sustaining injuries to his back. He was brought to Duluth yesterday afternoon after 11:30 last night and taken to Mary's hospital. It is not expected that his injuries will prove serious.

Fargo Bankers Here.

Prominent among northwestern bankers in Duluth yesterday were J. W. Welser, vice president, and F. A. Johnson, cashier of the First National Bank of Fargo. Theirs is the largest bank institution in North Dakota. The bankers here say that the people of North Dakota are not worrying as much about the backward spring as they consider the conditions very satisfactory for seeding, though it is a little later than usual.

Back From Florida.

F. B. Spelman of Duluth has returned from Florida and the east. Mrs. Spelman will return in a few weeks. She is at present visiting friends in Providence, R. I. Mrs. Spelman spent the past winter months in Florida and then journeyed up the Atlantic coast by easy stages to New York and other points.

Are Not Discouraged.

Local farmers are not discouraged by the backward spring. They say that a week of warm weather will put the ground in shape for planting vegetables. The farmers say they will get good crops even if they get them in for two or even three weeks yet. The only difference is that the crops will be a little later maturing.

Lake Breezes

Good printing—Northland Printery.

Sweet Pea Seed.

In bulk. Named varieties, 5c per oz. Just half usual prices. Seekins.

Will Meet Wednesday.

The Boys' Department Y. M. C. A. cabinet will hold a regular meeting Wednesday evening. Only routine business is scheduled to come up.

Is Out Again.

Arthur P. Cook, clerk to the poor commission, was out yesterday for the first time in a week, having been confined to his home by a stiff leg, caused by a severe sprain he sustained.

Anna C. Sodergren Dies.

Anna C. Sodergren died yesterday at her residence on Quince street, Duluth Heights. The funeral will be held Wednesday from Durken & Crawford's undertaking parlors. Interment will be at Park Hill cemetery.

Dies of Consumption.

Frank Newgedauer died Sunday morning at St. Mary's hospital of consumption. Mr. Newgedauer has been connected with the Oliver Mining company, and during the winter has been in California for his health. His uncle is expected to reach the city today to take the body to Crystal Falls, Mich., for burial.

Deal Is Closed.

The Wisconsin Central Railway company closed a deal with the Merrill & Ring Mill company Saturday, whereby they acquired a final title to their right of way through their property along the bay front at West Duluth. The deal was a private one, and has been pending for the last six months.

Accused of Stealing.

Frank Jones was arrested yesterday morning as a fugitive from justice on a telephone message from the Superior police. It is alleged that Jones stole a quantity of clothing. He was turned over to the Superior authorities yesterday afternoon.

Accused of Theft.

David Shapiro was arrested yesterday morning up a warrant sworn out by Joseph Oreckovsky charging him with having stolen $150. The theft is alleged to have been committed in Carlton county, and Shapiro was turned over to Sheriff John Flynn in the afternoon.

Contest Still On.

The land case, in which John A. Lindgren is contesting the filing rights of Artie O'Dea, was still on yesterday but bids fair to be completed today. O'Dea filed upon the sec. 27, n. 1/2 ne and ne. nw. sec. 24, town 57, range 9, on November 13, 1906. Lindgren claims this land by right of previous settlement, having taken pos-