

Neighbors to Meet.

A meeting of the Royal Neighbors lodge will be held this evening, a social session to follow the regular order of business.

The Light House.

For anything in light, call up the Light House, 423 both phones. Gas and electrical goods, Monley & Smith, proprs.

Mother Superior Returns.

Mother Superior Lena Nelson of the Deaconess hospital at Minneapolis, who has been here for the past week visiting, returned home last evening.

Minneapolis Business Trip.

Secretary M. C. Bachelor of the Commercial club left last evening for Minneapolis to attend to a few business matters.

Long Trip.

Bathgate Pink Paper: Mrs. F. A. Willson and daughter, Helen, left on Saturday for Seattle. She was accompanied as far as Grand Forks by Mr. Willson. She will return about the first of August, via the Canadian route.

Is a Veteran.

Judge E. C. Geary, of Fargo, is a visitor to Grand Forks to attend the Masonic grand lodge. Mr. Geary is a veteran of the Civil War, and for a number of years held the position of police magistrates in Fargo.

Visiting at Ardoch.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Drew of Cray were in the city last night, and this morning went out to the home of Mr. Drew's parents at Ardoch where they will visit for a few days. Mrs. Drew is just returning from a delightful visit at her old home in Wisconsin.

Funeral Here.

The funeral of Mrs. J. D. Sattler will take place in Grand Forks Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Michael's church, Rev. Father Conaty officiating. The funeral cortege will leave the Ingalls house at 9:30 o'clock. The remains of Mrs. Sattler arrived here from Duluth today.

An Old Resident.

James McDonald of Grafton, was a visitor to Grand Forks yesterday to attend the masonic grand lodge. Mr. McDonald a few years ago was honored by the election as grand master. He is now one of the county commissioners of Walsh county, where he has resided for the past twenty-five years.

Wanted in Ramsey.

Devils Lake Journal: Sheriff Bedford says that the horse thief who was arrested at Red Lake Saturday, is one of the men who is wanted here for horse stealing. It may be possible, he says, that at the trial of the thief some of the facts may come to light which will lead to the arrest of the thief who is wanted here, as it is probable that the parties are in some way connected.

Rev. Esterbrook to Leave.

Rev. C. H. Esterbrook of Grafton was in the city yesterday on his way to the ministerial meeting at Larimore. Rev. Esterbrook has been offered a splendid charge in California and after the close of the conference year will remove to that state. He is an earnest and able churchman, an eloquent pulpiteer and a man devoted to this calling. The people of this conference will lose a valuable servant, but all will congratulate him on his well merited promotion in his chosen calling.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

J. W. Ross, the Architect.

W. J. Edwards, the other Architect.

F. L. Dixon makes a specialty of steam and hot water heating. Both phones 423.

Get One.

$1.25 Sailor Hats for 59 cents at Taugbol's.

The Grand Forks Ice company is located in the Flatiron building. Both phones 447.

Erecting Residence.

Fred Barrington is engaged in the erection of a residence on Walnut street.

Kept the Secret.

Crookston Times: Rev. Salverson of the Synod church of this city, was called to Grand Forks this morning to marry a couple at that place. The clergyman had been bribed, however, and refused to give out the names until after the ceremony.

For the Defendant.

The verdict of the jury in the case of the Queen City Insurance company vs. Hatcher Bros., was returned last night at about 6:30 o'clock, it being in favor of the defendant. The suit involved $1,000 claimed to have been paid out by the company on a prohibited risk written by Hatcher Bros.

Fire works at Gelst's.

Panovitz' annual lace curtain clearance this week. One-third off regular prices. Don't miss this.

Body to McCanna.

The body of E. O. Edwards was shipped to McCanna this morning. Interment is to take place there.

Attend Funeral.

Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. H. Yoerg of St. Paul have arrived in Grand Forks to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. D. Sattler.

We buy, sell or exchange nice, clean furniture, carpets, stoves, etc. Grand Forks Furniture company, 208 South Third street. Phone 630.

Notice.

Bids will be received at the office of the secretary of the Grand Forks State Fair association until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 29, for the exclusive privilege of advertising on the fair ground fence for one year.

Small Wreck

A small freight wreck at Conway yesterday resulted in a delay of the south bound passenger, it not arriving in Grand Forks until this morning at about 11 o'clock. Several cars were derailed at the Conway station.

Ask Old Debt.

W. M. Edwards has brought suit against Fred Weeks to compel payment of an old debt for work and material. Attorney S. J. Radcliffe is attorney for the plaintiff.

Pleasure Trip.

N. G. Benner has left on a pleasure trip to the Pacific coast. He will visit in Yellowstone park and many other United States points of interest, and returning he will make a trip through Canada.

Bank Cashier.

Charles A. Harris, assistant cashier of the First National bank, of Grafton, participated in the masonic grand lodge here for the past two days. Mr. Harris is one of the prominent Masons of the state.

From Inspection Trip.

Superintendent Macy Nicholson of the Dakota division of the Great Northern, returned last evening from a trip to Devils Lake, where he met President Louis Hill, who was there on an inspection visit.

All Welcome.

The Young People's society of the Scandinavian Methodist church will meet at the Farmers' restaurant on Third street on Friday evening. A good program will be given. All welcome.

Home From Vacation.

E. F. Briggs, who is connected with the St. Paul insurance company, returned home yesterday from Chicago where he has been spending the past week on his vacation. He left last evening to look after a few matters of business in Fargo.

Carelessly Handled.

A. W. Bakke says that the Herald has little regard for the truth, and that their handling of it is most remarkable. Today's paper published an account of Mr. Bakke having been injured quite severely in an accident at the Turner Sash and Door factory. As a matter of fact, the injury amounts to nothing more or less than a couple of sprained toes.