

SUPERIOR COURT CASES WILL BE CALLED TODAY

One of three criminal cases is scheduled for trial when the adjourned session of the Superior court convenes at 9 o'clock this morning. The cases scheduled are those of M. J. Shay, charged with the robbery of $400 from Larsen's grocery store about three weeks ago. George Frazier of the South Side is charged with a grave statutory offense. The complainant is a little girl. W. J. Foley is charged with assaulting Max Wiener. Some of the attorneys interested in the cases have suits pending in the circuit court, and until the opening of court this morning, it will not be determined as to which of the three defendants stated will be placed on trial first.
