

LITTLE BOY IS LOST; COPS CAN'T FIND HIM

---

Henry Levenson, the 7-year-old son of Samuel Levenson, 802 West Superior street, disappeared from his home at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and up to midnight no trace of him had been found.

The family only came to the city from Russia a short time ago, and the little boy is unable to speak a word of English.

The parents are distracted over the occurrence. Every police officer in the city was instructed to search for the lost child.

The police are inclined to believe that the boy wandered about the city until he became lost, and exhausted from fatigue, lay down to sleep somewhere. Had he been taken in by someone it is probable that the police would have been notified.

The lad was dressed in white duck pants, brown cap and wore a yellow and white waist.

---