

SAYS POLITICAL ENEMIES ARE ACTIVE

Judge Vivian Prince of Eveleth, is at the St. Louis and wrathful over what he claims are the stratagems of his political enemies. The suit entitled Morris Shtien vs. Max Greenberg, Nellie Greenburg and Vivian Prince, is described by the judge as one of the political bombs that have been produced by those who would like to see him defeated for municipal judge of Eveleth at the coming election. The judge said:

"I have been sued for $500 damages in a case that I know nothing about. I am alleged to be interested in a firm with Max Greenberg, and am not and never was so associated. Max Shtien says in his complaint that I held him while Nellie Greenberg took $275 from him. There is nothing to it."
