The inability of the main sewer to care for the call upon its capacity was exemplified during the heavy rains Sunday and Monday. As a result many of the Chestnut street basements, not provided with a back-water trap, were made to resemble swimming holes.

County Auditor Odin Halden was up from Duluth on Tuesday, making a brief call on friends and attending to business matters. We were absent from the city at the time of his visit, but understand Mr. Halden will again be in the field for re-election. And that point is equivalent to an assurance that nobody else will enter the race.

Editor A. E. Pfeiffer, of the Hibbing Tribune, came up from Duluth on the Sunday Flyer and stopped off in this city to see the Virginia-Hibbing ball game, but owing to the rain was forced to forego the pleasure of "rooting." He spent the day fraternizing with the Enterprise staff, returning home on the Great Northern special in the evening.

Mrs. John Costin, Jr. and children left Saturday for Minneapolis and West Side, Iowa, at which place she attended the nuptial ceremonies of her brother, the Hon. Joseph Austin, of Chisholm, who was wedded on Wednesday to Miss Hazel Cathcart, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Cathcart, formerly of this city. Mr. Costin accompanied them as far as Duluth, returning Monday.

David Graham, P. J. Ryan, Peter Wring and R. W. Hitecock were among Hibbingites who came over to witness the Virginia-Hibbing ball game on Saturday, but the only opportunity they had of getting excited was when one of the Virginia players fell down in the fifth inning and again in the seventh, at which stage of the game the first Hibbing player planted his brogans on second base through playing the game.

Capt. and Mrs. M. L. Fay, who returned from their winter's sojourn in the south and west, came up from Duluth Tuesday evening and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schulze. Mr. Fay gives a bright report of the development and prospects of the Fay-Canaan copper properties in the Sonora district, large bodies of high grade ore being proven in several shafts. A number of Virginians are numbered among the stock-holders in this property, which is being developed under an economical management.

Ask any Business Woman who has once used

Moore's Non-Leakable Fountain Pen

why she prefers it above all others and in all probability she'll give you a dozen reasons — it has so many merits. "Why" she'll begin. "I can drop it into my pocket" "Leak?" "Never; it can't. It's air-tight and ink-tight." "It's a convenient size—4 1/2 inches long when closed." "It's clean—to handle—never soils the fingers. But I could not begin to recite all its virtues. There's no pen that can compare with it in any respect." See for yourself. We have all the various styles
