

Lake Breezes

Good Printing—Northland Printery.

Private, picnic parties, tourist. Rent launches of Patterson Boat company. Best on lake.

Special monthly rates for the winter season at the Spalding and Hotel Superior became effective Oct. 1st. Cafes of the highest standard.

Will Be Here Today.

Cyrus McCormick, the famous maker of self binders and other farm machinery, will arrive in the city this evening with his family, and they will be guests at the Spalding hotel.

Accused of Blind Pigging.

Dora Gibbs was brought down from the range late yesterday afternoon by a deputy sheriff, accused of having sold liquor without a license. She will be arraigned in police court this morning.

Accused of Stealing.

William Seden was arraigned in police court yesterday morning accused of having stolen a watch and some money from Oscar Wick of 119 East First street. He will be given a hearing on a charge of grand larceny August 28.

Refuses Change of Venue.

Judge Ensign of the district court issued an order yesterday denying the motion for a change of venue in the case of Anton Glesner against Percy Christopher, which was made by the defendant.

Articles Are Filed.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the register of deeds by the Furniss Realty company. The incorporators are Thomas Furniss, Jennie Nixon and Thomas A. Merritt, all of Duluth. The capital stock of the company is $10,000, divided into 100 shares at $100 each.

Exhibit Is Shipped.

The St. Louis county exhibit for the state fair left last night for St. Paul in charge of A. B. Hostetter, and it will be put in place at the grounds today. In addition to the farm model, there are excellent exhibits of grasses, grains and vegetables. Everything will be presented in attractive form.

Cloquet Man Brings Suit.

Leroy A. Fish, doing business in Cloquet under the firm name of L. A. Fish & Co., has started an action in the district court against J. A. Roberts, demanding judgment on two grounds for $171.89. He alleges that he had sold roofing material for that amount, which has not been paid for yet.

Arrested for Fighting.

Paul Koch and Tony Smith were arrested late last night for fighting on the street at Sixth avenue west and Superior street. Koch sustained a bad scalp wound in the encounter which had to be sewed up at the central station by a physician. Smith claimed that Koch made an improper remark to him.

Injured in Sawmill.

M. L. Maxwell, employed in a mill at Swan River, Minn., was brought to

St. Mary's hospital last evening. He sustained painful injuries yesterday morning while at work in the mill. A large belt broke and knocked him down. It was said at the hospital that no bones were broken and that his injuries were not dangerous.

Dr. Lawrence Here.

Dr. H. M. Lawrence, son of Dr. W. D. Lawrence of the Lawrence Sanitarium in Minneapolis, was in the city yesterday. He says that his father and mother have just returned from a trip to Europe. Dr. W. D. Lawrence is well known in Duluth as a result of his extensive work in the Uplift society, which is international in its scope.

She Sues for Divorce.

Marie B. Sundby, 24 years old, has started a divorce action in the district court against her husband, Cleon A. Sundby, 34 years old, on the grounds of desertion. According to her complaint they were married in Superior on March 29, 1901, and one child has been born to them. On March 11, 1907, he left her, going to St. Paul, where he now resides.

Is Going to Idaho.

Mrs. W. T. Fitzgerald of Peshtigo, Wis., has arrived in the city on her way to Spirit Lake, Idaho, to join her husband. She is a guest of Mrs. James Maney, of 1622 East Third street. Mr. Fitzgerald was formerly master mechanic of the Wisconsin & Michigan road and has gone to Idaho to take a similar position with the Idaho & Western.

Team Causes Excitement.

A heavy team hitched to a load of lumber created some excitement near Munger Terrace yesterday. One of the animals kicked so hard that it broke a chain that held some of the lumber, and the top boards slid down on the backs of the team, at which they started to run. They ran into a tree and were thrown down by the collision, and more boards piled on top of them. They were finally extricated without serious damage. The team is owned by the Duluth Lumber company.

Suits Are Started.

Notes of issue but no complaints were filed in the following cases yesterday: Rudolph Strink against the Oliver Iron Mining company; Louis Ocinsky against Max Bloom; Independent Brewing association against C. B. Burr; Mike Melovich against the Republic Iron & Steel company; Felix DeSanta against John Wahl Factory; Joseph Pangre against Oliver Iron Mining company; John Mohar, by John Pasha, guardian, against the Oliver Iron Mining company; Louis Vassel against the Oliver Iron Mining company. Today offers the last chance to file notes of issue for the September term.