

PERSONALS

Robert Logan, general manager of the American Shipbuilding company, is a guest at the St. Louis.

G. A. Tomlinson has returned from the east and is at the Spalding.

Henry B. Paull, auditor of the North Butte and Calumet & Arizona companies has gone to Bisbee and will be gone about a month.

William Harrison left yesterday for New York.

George Lydick of Cass Lake passed through the city last evening on his way to St. Paul.

James Cardle came down from Cass Lake yesterday and is at the St. Louis.

M. H. Schussler of Floodwood was a guest at the St. Louis yesterday.

A. L. Macgregor of Cleveland was registered at the Spalding yesterday.

J. H. Holman of Calumet was among the arrivals at the Spalding yesterday.

W. M. Smith of Washburn was at the Lenox yesterday.

F. C. Morris of Big Rapids is at the Lenox.

F. H. Harris of Neganuee was at the Lenox yesterday.

R. W. Robinson of Scanlon was in the city yesterday, a guest at the McKay.

A. J. LeClair of Cando, N. D., was at the McKay yesterday.

Harry Berger and wife of Necnah are guests at the McKay.

D. T. Adams will go to Chicago today, and will return later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Goldish and Mr. and Mrs. G. Miller left last evening for La Crosse where they will attend the wedding of Samuel Goldish of St. Paul, a relative.