

YOUNG GRADUATES ARE TENDERED RECEPTION

The graduates at the Carpenter school to receive diplomas for the first semester were tendered a reception by the Sigma Kappa and Y. C. L. societies of the school last evening. The reception which was followed by a program of entertainment and social session, was held at the assembly room of the Carpenter school.

Members of 8A class at the school rendered a trial scene from the "Merchant of Venice" much to the delight of a large assemblage of students and friends. The members of the cast were Tracy Budnick, Anna Harris, Anna Nelmi, Sam Schlosberg, Albin Schulties, Lena Cohen, Elsie Karon and Anna Jones. Miss Cora O'Connor, noble commander of the Sigma Kappa, delivered the address of welcome on the opening of the exercises.

Following are the members of the class who will give the regular class exercises tonight:

Florence Phillips, Julia Wurzbach, Frank Murphy, Arthur Hanson, Olive Emerson, Tracy Budnick, Anna Harris, Anna Nelmi, Sam Schlosberg, Albin Schulties, Lena Cohen, Elsie Karon and Anna Jones.

Class officers: Arthur Hanson, president; Tracy Budnick, vice president; Frank Murphy, treasurer and Anna Nelmi, secretary.
