

DEFENDANT ALLEGES THE BILL WAS PAID

The case of Jennie Bloom against the administrator of the estate of Saloma Benson, to recover $129 for a bill of furniture, was called before Judge Dill yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff claims this amount was due at the time of the death of Mrs. Benson and in support of this offered testimony of Max Bloom the manager of her store, 102 West First street and the books of the firm. The defense had just opened when court adjourned. The defense will claim that the plaintiff has charged the estate with goods that were bought and paid for several years ago. Attorney Charles Adams has charge of the defense while Baldwin, Baldwin & Dancer are the attorneys for the plaintiff. The case will be finished at this morning session.
