

FREE RECITAL AT CONSERVATORY

Public Will Be Given Opportunity to Hear Duluth Children in Concert and Chorus Work.

A free recital will be given by the Flaaten Conservatory of Music at its hall, 212 West First street, Sunday, Dec. 20, at 3 p. m.

The object of these recitals is to give every child in the school an opportunity to appear in public during the winter without showing any preference as to age or ability.

One of the main features of this recital is the little girls' chorus, which has been carefully trained under the direction of Miss Riblette. The chorus will meet every Wednesday and Saturday throughout the season. The next recital will be given the first week in February, at which the elocution department will be mainly represented. Everybody is invited to attend.

The chorus members are: Gladys McAuley, Hilda Hermanson, Mille Hermonson, Emma Hill, Lillian Schetz, Vina Paseman, Edith Karon, Ruby Patterson, Myrtle Finkle, Myrtle Johnson, Winnifred Morterud, Leba Jordboy, Nora Smith, Katherine Barnard, Almo Christopher, Margaret Deres, Gertrude McCuen, Ella Stenberg and Babe Weber.
