

CIGAR STORE CLOSED

Constable Woods was yesterday busy taking an inventory of the stock of Harry Witz, 1110 Tower avenue. The Tom Reed Cigar company of Duluth was responsible for the action which resulted in closing the store, having a claim for $287.25 and costs. It is stated that the total liabilities of the firm will be in the neighborhood of $1,000 and as near as can be ascertained at the present time the assets are about $600.
