

BREVITIES

A meeting of the Improvement league has been called for tomorrow evening at the Commercial club and it is anticipated that the special committees appointed will have interesting reports to submit as to the best manner in which to preserve and develop the trees which ornament the avenues of the city, and other matters pertinent to the attainment of the "city beautiful."

It is announced that the marriage of Miss Maggie C. Dunlop to George A. Phelps will take place Sept. 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, 1291 North Sixteenth street.

Rev. T. H. Harvey will occupy the pulpit of the First Methodist church both morning and evening today. This will be the first appearance of the newly appointed pastor of the church.

Russell & Holmquist were awarded the contract for the grading of Union square, Central Park, at 50 cents a yard and they offered to lay the pipe at 40 cents a foot. There appears to have been a misunderstanding as to the amount of work to be done and it is possible that the bid may be withdrawn. There were many bids for the work.

The funeral of Dan Westermill was held yesterday afternoon from the residence, 138 East First street, Allouez. Rev. L. K. Grimes officiated and the body was interred at Greenwood cemetery.

A building permit was yesterday granted to Emil Sedlachek for a storehouse at 1005 Winter street to cost $600.

Sadie Miller, an old offender in police court, was yesterday given 30 days at the county jail by Acting-Judge Stack on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Isaac Helstein has sold his home at 608 Hammond avenue to Andrew Johnson for a consideration approximating $2,000 through, Wildner & Cooke.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chucker of 415 Hughitt avenue.