

PERSONALS

Miss Emma Browning, 909 North Sixth street, who recently underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital for appendicitis, is very much improved.

W. M. Colon of the Northern block of the East End is confined to his home by an attack of grip.

Mrs. P. W. Court, Hughitt avenue, who has been critically ill for some days, was reported yesterday as much improved and it is believed that she is now on the road to recovery.

Senator G. B. Hudnall, Bay street, left yesterday evening for Madison in connection with legislative duties.

Mrs. N. Hodge, Tower avenue, left last night to visit at points in the east.

Louis Hanitch left last night via the Omaha for Madison and other points on business.

Miss Anna Hillsdale of Sauk Center, Minn., left last night for New York where she will shortly sail for Germany to spend the winter studying music. While in the city she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Broadway flats.

C. F. Rice, formerly a Superior cigar manufacturer, was in the city yesterday in the interest of a St. Paul wholesale house.

Fred Phalen has returned to Fort William after spending a day with friends in the city, to assume his duties in connection with the construction of an elevator in the Canadian city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan have returned to Ashland after spending Sunday in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wildner, Hughitt avenue.

A. J. Pederson of the Fair store has returned from Chicago.

Mrs. Lee Abraham is reported quite ill at her home on Sixteenth street.

Miss Marion McKanna, Sixteenth street, left yesterday for St. Paul, where she will be joined by her sister, Mrs. Frank E. Clarity on a trip to Osage, Ia., and to points in southern Wisconsin to be the guests of friends.