

AX SEVERS THUMB.

While chopping wood yesterday, M. Ginsberg, 45 years old, residing at 1516 West Michigan street, accidentally severed the first joint of his thumb on the left hand. The wound was dressed by a local physician. The accident occurred while Ginsberg was holding a piece of wood in one hand and chopping it with a small ax in the other.