

SCHOOL DEBATERS WILL HAVE TRYOUT TONIGHT

The tryout for the high school debating team will be held this evening at the high school auditorium. The question to be debated is "Resolved, That Minnesota Adopt the Initiative and Referendum." It is the same question which is to be debated by the members of the Minnesota State Debating league.

Of the contestants there is only one veteran so that for the most part the team will be of new material. Those who will speak are as follows: For the affirmative, Roger Lerch, Joe Abrams, Lloyd Green, Rupert O'Brien and Charles Evans; for the negative, Harry Zlatkovsky, Alfred Ott, Allen J. Greenfield, Rolfe Hovde and Elbert Vaughn.

The judges will be Assistant City Attorney J. Kenney, Attorney Austin Lathers and Attorney C. C. Colton. The selection will not be made until Wednesday of next week.

Those remaining after the choice of a first team will compose a second team.
