

DEBATING TEAMS FOR HIGH SCHOOL CHOSEN

As the result of the preliminary debating contest which was held Friday evening, the High School debating team was chosen. Out of the nine contestants three were chosen for the school team and three were selected for the second team.

The members of the first team are: Harry Zlatkovsky, Charles Evens and Rupert O'Brien. Of these Charles Evens is the only veteran, having been a member of last year's team and is a very forceful speaker. Mr. Zlatkovsky has been the leader of the championship class teams of the high school for the last two years and is considered the most heady debater in the high school. Mr. O'Brien was a member of last year's champion junior and has had the least experience of any of the team, but promises to be a very apt speaker.

Those chosen for the second team are Roger Lerch, Lloyd Green, and Alfred Ott. Mr. Lerch was a member of last year's sophomore team which defeated the freshmen. Mr. Green was a member of last year's second team.

The judges who chose the team were Edwin Kenny, Austin Lathers and C. C. Colton.
