

Society

The Agenda Five Hundred club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. H. Hall of the east end. The favors were won by Mrs. Jason D. Clark. The club will meet next time with Mrs. A. E. Herschleb, John avenue, which will probably be after the holidays.

The East End Five Hundred club will meet tomorrow evening with Mrs. E. J. Hawarden, West Sixth street.

Mrs. Kate McCormick and daughter, Miss Lillian, will leave Tuesday for Madison, Wis., where they will spend the holidays with Frank and Mrs. Elizabeth McCormick.

St. Cecilia's Guild of the Church of the Redeemer met Monday evening with Miss Mary Brooks, West Fourth street.

Harold Pickering of the law department of the Wisconsin University will arrive this week to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pickering, West Sixth street.

Miss Anna Taylor of the Loring terrace is expected home this week from points in California, where she has spent the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pickering and family, West Sixth street, will spend Christmas with Attorney and Mrs. R. C. Pickering of Virginia, Minn.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Pilgrim Congregational church held their annual meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. S. W. Lightbody, Hammond avenue. Election of officers took place at this meeting. The following were elected: President, Mrs. Walter Fowler; treasurer, Mrs. A. D. Woodson; secretary, Mrs. A. J. Wentzel; Mesdames A. G. Fee, N. H. York, Ljama, T. Powell and W. E. Maddock and Miss Cora Nason were elected councillors.

Miss Cora Leader will return this week from the Wisconsin University to spend the holidays at her home in this city.

The members of the East End Card club have postponed their meetings indefinitely.

Mrs. Robert Kelly, John avenue, entertained a number of friends at a box party Wednesday evening, at the Grand opera house to see "Graustark."

Mrs. J. W. Ireland, Hammond avenue, visited in the Twin Cities last week.

Mrs. John Burnsen, John avenue, returned from a visit to Ashland, Wis.

Mrs. Frank Dear and children have returned to their home at Hibbing, Minn., after a few days' stay in the city.

Mrs. James Madison Kennedy of Chicago is expected tomorrow to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, John avenue.

The next meeting of the Superior Bridge club will be with Mrs. Howard Thomas, Belknap street, Thursday, December 30.

The Central Park Sewing club met Saturday with Mrs. Lewis Hanitch of Central Park.

Mrs. Robert Kelly, John avenue, will give a luncheon next Thursday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. James Madison Kennedy of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. White of Hotel Superior, will leave tomorrow for Toledo, Ohio, where they will spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. W. H. Webb, Twentieth street, was hostess to the "Ramblers" Monday afternoon. Last evening Mrs. Webb entertained the club at dinner. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lily Langley and Miss Janet Vinje.

Mrs. G. H. St. John, 1619 Ogden avenue, was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Martin Pattison of Central Park gave a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. I. L. Lenroot. The decorations were pink carnations. The luncheon was followed by bridge. Mrs. Lenroot received the guest's prize, and the free-for-all went to Mr. Louis Hanitch.

Misses Irene, Myrnia and Lois Pattison will return this morning from the east, where they have been attending school, and will spend the holidays at their home in Central Park. They were accompanied home by Miss Elizabeth Fold of Amsterdam, N. Y., who will be their guest until after the holidays.

Mrs. Claude Z. Luse, John avenue, visited in St. Paul last week.

The Mary Arden Shakespeare club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Homer Andrew of the South Side. The ladies expect to finish reading "Othello," at this meeting.

County Treasurer George B. Wilkinson left last week for his old home at Brockville, Ont., where he will spend the holidays.

The members of the Neighborhood Bridge club have postponed their meetings until after the holidays.

Fred Speechly, formerly of the Wisconsin Telephone company of this city spent a few days in Superior last week. Mr. Speechly is now located at St. Cloud, Minn.

Mrs. Martin Pattison of Central Park returns this morning from Chicago, where she went to meet her daughters returning from the east where they have been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conan and children of Ely, Minn., will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Bardon of the East End during the holidays. They will then go to points in California, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

The Wednesday Evening Card club met last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hawarden, West Sixth street. The next meeting will be some time in January.

Miss May Padden of the Broadway flats has recovered from an attack of diphtheria.

A delightful dancing party was given Tuesday evening at Odd Fellows hall at the South End, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. Johnson, who will leave soon for points in California to make their home. Excellent music was furnished and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. About 40 couples were present.

The annual charity ball for the benefit of the Children's home will be held Friday evening, December 31, at Hotel Superior. Elaborate preparations are being made for the affair and the directors are working hard to make it one of the most successful that has ever been given in Superior.

The members of the St. Elmo company, who play at the Grand, Christmas afternoon and evening, will have an Xmas celebration at Hotel Superior, Friday evening. An Xmas tree and other festivities appropriate for the day have been arranged for in advance.

A number of Superior people will attend the assembly dance to be given in Duluth, Friday evening, Dec. 31.

Judge and Mrs. L. K. Luse and Miss Luse are visiting at Amboy, Indiana.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Celia Weiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Weisner and Hyman Nyrin, was solemnized Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 1710 North Fifth street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Chitrenblott. The bride wore a dainty gown of white liberty satin and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her attendant was Miss Eva Weiner. The wedding music was furnished by H. Haronimus, Misses Sarah Haronimus and Bessie Florence. A reception and dance followed the wedding ceremony.

The directors of the Children's Home association are planning to have a Christmas celebration next Friday afternoon for the little ones at the home. Any person wishing to help a good cause can do so, by donating toys, Christmas tree decorations and similar articles, sending them to the home, or to Mrs. Howard Thomas, 1619 Belknap street. Articles to be donated should be sent in early in the week.