

BREVITIES

The Ancient Order of Hibernians will hold an open installation of officers at the Sacred Heart auditorium on Thursday evening, Jan. 6. The officers to be installed are those elected at a recent meeting of the order.

The funeral of James McCauley will be held from the Sacred Heart cathedral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The services will be in charge of the Fraternal Order of Eagles of which the deceased was a prominent member. He died yesterday morning at a local hospital. He was 48 years of age and single.

Two couples were issued licenses to wed by County Clerk Charles Flagstad. Edward Thompson and Ruth McNeill and M. Drandrick and Irma Pirsklen were the names of those who have fallen by means of Cupid's darts.

Edward Blade transferred 80 acres in section 8-47-10, to Frank Stelt for a consideration of $2,000, according to a deed filed with Register of Deeds Helge Johnson yesterday.

M. N. Sher has completed arrangements to open a new general store at Brule. Mr. Sher is at present in business at 528 Ogden avenue. He will have a stock valued at $25,000 at his Brule enterprise, he says. He will continue to operate his Superior store.

Sol Cohen was discharged in bankruptcy proceedings by Clerk of the Federal Court H. E. Tickner yesterday. Both the liabilities and assets were small.

A suit for $228, alleged to be due on several cars of tamarack piling, against Finch Brothers of this city, was instituted yesterday in superior court by George Harding, through his attorney, George C. Cooper.

Caesar Coppens, through his attorneys, Dietrich & Dietrich, yesterday filed with the clerk of the superior court an action for divorce against his wife, May Coppens. Desertion is given as the cause of the action.

The case of Albert Jones, the negro barber, charged with violating the Wisconsin barbers' inspection statute was adjourned to Jan. 4 in municipal court yesterday.