

JEWISH PEOPLE WED AT HIBBING

Young Woman of That City Is United in Marriage With New York Jeweler.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

HIBBING, March 23.—One of the prettiest weddings that Hibbing has known was solemnized at 8 p. m. in Close's hall, when Miss Annie Helstein, daughter of L. Helstein of Hibbing, was married to David Miller, a jeweler of New York.

The service was performed in accordance with the impressive rites of the Jewish orthodox church, Rabbi Kussem of Duluth conducting the ceremony.

The groom in black, and the bride, beautifully gowned in white silk with bridal veil and carrying white roses, entered the hall to the sound of wedding music played by a full orchestra, and stood together under a canopy during the reading of the contract by Rabbi Kussem and the beautiful ring service that followed. They were attended by the bridal party and flower children. In the bridal party were Messrs. Louis Helstein, Nathan Nides, Benjamin Friedman and Hyman Miller of Duluth, brother of the groom, and Misses Sara Slossberg, Annie Kasmir, Clara Shore and Sara Helstein. Sara Azinski and Morris Helstein carried flowers.

A number of guests from out of town were present at the wedding, among them Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Shore, Miss Clara Shore, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fieldman, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, the Misses Annie Kasmir and Hymen Miller of Duluth; Mr. and Mrs. Azinski and Miss Sara Azinski and Miss Sara Slossberg of Superior; Mr. and Mrs. S. Bronstein, Mr. and Mrs. Stein and L. W. Mark of St. Paul and Mr. Friend of Minneapolis.

Two hundred guests witnessed the ceremony and sat down to the wedding supper provided by the bride's parents. The bride and groom will go on a short wedding trip and will be at home in Duluth after April 10.

A party was given at the home of the bride's parents on Pine street by members of the bridal party in honor of the bride and groom and of Miss Sara Slossberg, who is about to leave for the coast.
