

THEY WOULD NOT GIVE WOMEN RIGHT TO VOTE

---

That the women of the United States are not entitled to full suffrage was decided in a debate at the high school yesterday afternoon.

The affirmative was upheld by Rupert O'Brien, Alfred Ott and Glen Thompson. The negative side was taken by Harry Zlatkovsky, George Sireen and Harry Weston. Sidney Baker, Ralph Johnson and Harlow Watkins were the judges.

Several amendments were added to the constitution of the Public Speaking club.

---