At a meeting of the Political Equality club Wednesday evening in the council chamber, a debate was held between six boys from the high school on the merits of woman suffrage.

Erling Mostne, John Skadberg and Ralph Johnson were in favor of the ballot and Harry Zlatkovsky, Rupert O'Brien and Alfred Ott, opposed. The arguments were sustained on both sides, but the affirmative carried the day. The judges were A. E. Mc Manus, Hans B. Haroldson and Mr. Gillette.

At the close of the debate Mr. Mc-

Manus said a few words on the subject of political equality for women. Miss Evelyn Morterud recited an appropriate poem "Remonstrance," written by William Lloyd Garrison jr., a recent festival given by the New England Woman Suffrage association.

There will be a special meeting of the executive board of the Twentieth Century club tomorrow morning, May 24, at 10 o'clock, at the club room of the library.
