

FUND IS STARTED FOR MRS. GINSBERG

Generous Persons Come to Aid of
Destitute Woman Who Lost
Two Children in Flood.

W. W. Billson, $5.

R. H. (Kitchi Gammi club), $5.

Friend, bundle clothing.

The announcement in yesterday's News Tribune that this paper will receive contributions of money and articles that may be made use of by Mrs. Ralph Ginsberg and her three surviving children, brought three responses yesterday, two of cash and one a package of clothing.

Two of Mrs. Ginsberg's children were drowned in the flood of last Wednesday night, and the woman is destitute. Her husband, who is a shoemaker, was away at the time of the flood, on the range seeking employment, and nothing has been heard from or of him.

There is no doubt of the worthiness of this case.
