

DEACONESS HOME NOTES

Mrs. M. J. Kreidler went to Rutledge and Finlayson last week where she conducted services in the Methodist churches.

Miss Edith Gorby who has done deaconess work in this district since the Home opened last fall, will leave for her home in Kansas City soon. She will take up deaconess work nearer her home city.

Miss Millicent Corps is spending her vacation in Troy, N. Y. and will return to the Home the first of September.

Mrs. M. J. Kreidler, superintendent of the Home, is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Statre, of Decatur. Miss Mrs. Kreidler is taking her annual vacation at this time.

Mrs. Ginsberg and her little children were cared for at the Home the day after the storm and remained there until the Jewish people of the city learned of their need and made temporary provision for them.

Miss Trimble from the Fiske Deaconess Training school will come to the Home the first of September to take up her duties as parish deaconess for the First Methodist church.

Miss Isabella Chesnut of Toronto is a visitor at the Home this week.
