

NASHWAUK WOODMEN AND ROYAL NEIGHBORS INSTALL

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

NASHWAUK, Jan. 29.—A joint installation of officers was held by the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors here. The installation was a public one and a number of the friends of the members attended. After installing the new officers the Royal Neighbors served supper in the parlors of the hall. The officers recently elected to handle the affairs for the local lodge of Woodmen are as follows: Consul, J. H. Aiken; advisor, J. Holly; banker, Louis Shulrman; clerk, Arthur Gouth; escort, J. C. Lewis; inside guard, J. Fields; outside guard, H. Hicks; physician, Dr. J. L. Shellman, and trustees, A. Jaffee and J. Bartle.
