

BOVEY TO HAVE ALARM SYSTEM

Mesaba Telephone Company Is Installing Large Gong in Water and Light Plant.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

BOVEY, Feb. 12.—The Mesaba Telephone company is installing a fire alarm system for the village of Bovey. A large gong will be placed in the water and light plant, which will give the engineer warning of a fire.

Thos. Hornseth will open the Roan hotel building to accommodate the people who may not be able to obtain room elsewhere during the skee tournament.

The new Bovey postoffice will be opened about March 1 in the Anderson building on Second street. The new fixtures have already arrived.

J. J. Lang has severed his connections with the Canisteo laundry and left on a month's vacation.

The Itasca Iron News is working day and night on a special edition of the paper to leave the press Friday, Feb. 18, the day before the national skee tournament.

The Modern Brotherhood lodge entertained at cards in Johnson's hall. A lunch was served at midnight.

Miss Lillian Simon, sister of Lew Simon, the local clothier, was married at her home in Chicago, Tuesday, Feb. 8, to Chas. Silverstein of St. Paul. She is well known here.

The Juvenile Bostonians will appear in the Bovey opera house Monday night under the auspices of the Bovey fire department.

Erik Johnson, the local grocer, will return from his vacation in Cuba the first of the week.