

GIRLS NAMED FOR DEBATING TEAM

High School Tryouts Result in
Choice of Young Women to Meet West Duluth Orators.

The following girls of the Central high school have been picked to represent the institution of the girls' debating team: Misses Evangeline Stephenson, Mabel Franklin, Violet Flaaten. Bessie Warren will be first alternative. They were chosen yesterday afternoon after the preliminary contest. Misses Marie Watkins and Sarah Salnovitz were also contestants for places. The question discussed in the try-out was, "Resolved That suffrage should be granted to the women of the United States." Each speaker had 10 minutes for the main speech and three minutes for rebuttal.

A large crowd witnessed the debate. The judges were Miss Ella J. Shields, Miss Grace N. Wright and Miss L. Patterson, all of the Central high school faculty.

The team will immediately begin preparing for the debate with the West Duluth high school. The girls will meet Mr. Brackett at 2:30 next Monday at the public library.
