

Society

The Tuesday Evening Five Hundred club will meet this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schofield, Becker avenue.

The members of the Knights of Pythias lodge will give a banquet Wednesday evening at their lodge rooms on Twelfth street.

Miss Thora Nelson, formerly of this city, and Ole J. Korsmo of Elgin, Ill., were united in marriage Wednesday at Elgin, Ill. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Nelson, 1202 Harrison street, and for a number of years was connected with the Spicer-Panning company of this city.

The Shakespeare-Browning club will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. I. P. Lord, John avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Patton, John avenue, entertained informally at cards Friday evening. Five hundred was played at eight tables, the favors going to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maddocks.

The Ramblers met last Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. E. Maddocks, Fourteenth street.

Miss Goldie Whipple, West Thirtieth street, is spending a few days in St. Paul the guest of Miss Esther Morau.

Members of the Sacred Heart alumni gave a charming dancing party Friday night at Sacred Heart auditorium. There was a large attendance and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. Berg's orchestra furnished the music.

The Tuesday Bridge club met last week with Mrs. R. L. Tipton, Hughitt avenue. The favors went to Mrs. A. J. Vinje; Mrs. Vinje will be hostess to the club this week.

Miss Maud Walford, West Fifth street, left yesterday for a few days' visit in Minneapolis.

The Ramblers will give a dinner tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Jerrard, Hammond avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Patton. After dinner, cards will be enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Vandenburg arrived in the city last week from the east en route home to Los Angeles, Cal., and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Chadwick, Hughitt avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Vandenburg formerly resided in Superior.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Grace McDonald, of Evanston, Ill., and Dr. Holland I. Ground, son of Dr. W. E. Ground, of this city. Miss McDonald formerly resided in Superior having been a teacher in the city schools. Dr. Ground is now located in North Dakota. The date of the wedding has not been announced.

Mrs. Richard Webb, West Sixth street, will entertain the members of the Trio club and their husbands at dinner tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. After dinner cards will be played.

The Gondoller club will give a dancing party Friday evening at Music hall, East End.

The Superior Woman's club met Friday with Mrs. H. H. Smith, Sixteenth street. The subject, "Present Day France," was led by Mrs. J. McManus. After the program had been disposed of, resolutions of condolence, introduced by Mrs. Wilnot Eids, concerning the death of the late Mrs. Hiram Hayes, were passed. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. W. H. Crumpton, of Central Park. This will be the annual meeting and election of officers will take place. A program in charge of Mrs. I. P. Lord will also be given. The subject will be "French Literature."

Mrs. C. Z. Luse, John avenue, entertained the Neighborhood Bridge club, Monday afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon the members of the club will be entertained at the Country club.

A number of young folks enjoyed dinner at the Country club Monday evening. Dancing followed the dinner.

The members of Dewey camp of Royal Neighbors, Billings park, gave an entertaining program Tuesday evening at Maccabee hall. A large crowd was present and evidently appreciated the offering.

Joseph Meyer of Superior and Miss Teresa Bachleitner of Perham, Minn., were married early in the week at Perham, according to announcements received by Superior friends. They will shortly come to this city to reside.

Miss Winnifred Hayden was the honoree of a "novelty shower," given Friday night by Mrs. J. D. Bannister, 1916 Belknap street. Miss Hayden was given a valuable present by each of the score of guests present. Miss Hayden is to wed Jeremiah Dineen at Sacred Heart cathedral on Wednesday morning.

Supt. and Mrs. W. E. Maddock, Principal and Mrs. A. C. Shong and the members of the Blaine high school faculty will be entertained by Misses Margaret McEae and Mary Nye at the Country club Friday evening, next.

Invitations will be out this week for the May-day dance of the Rebekahs to be given at Odd Fellows' temple, Twelfth street and Ogden avenue on the evening of May 2.

Miss Jessie Wallace, who has been a practicing graduate nurse in the west has arrived in the city from Great Falls, Mont., to spend a few days with Mrs. Fred York and other relatives before going to Iowa.

the home of Mrs. William Pattison of Central Park. Mrs. Pattison received the honors.

Mrs. James Shipp and Mrs. A. N. Young entertained the members of the W. C. T. U., Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Shipp, North Sixteenth street.

Theodore Rogers, Ogden avenue, has returned from New York city, where he went to meet his daughter, Miss Ruth. Miss Rogers was returning from Germany where she has been studying music.

Mrs. C. D. Conkey and daughter, Miss Ruth, John avenue, have returned from a few days' visit at Madison, Wis. Dr. Conkey has also returned from a trip to Chicago, where he went to attend some medical lectures.

Mrs. Lorne Moodie, Hughitt avenue, entertained at a dainty tea, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Carolyn Nichols of Solon Springs, Wis., and Charles A. Knight of Duluth, were united in marriage Wednesday at the home of the bride "Sunshine Bower," Solon Springs. The ceremony was performed by Justice Meyers of Solon Springs. The bride wore a dainty gown of white silk and carried white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Nichols, who wore brown, and two little flower girls dressed in white, who carried baskets of roses. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party, a number of relatives and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Knight left on a short wedding trip and on their return will make their home at Solon Springs for the present.

Mrs. F. J. Wildner, Hughitt avenue, left last week for a visit with her daughter, Miss Evelyn, in New York city.

The Thursday evening Five Hundred club met last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hawarden, West Sixth street.

Miss Lillian McCormick, West Sixth street, spent the week-end at Shell Lake, Wis., with friends.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church when Miss Marie Kiggins and Joseph Webber, both of this city, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. J. Weber and the attendants were Miss Maud Dardis of Duluth and Frank Webber, a brother of the groom. The bride was gowned in white satin with pearl trimmings and wore a white picture hat. She carried white roses. Her attendant wore a tan colored gown with hat to match and carried pink roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast as served to the bridal party and a number of guests at the home of Mrs. P. A. McConville, Belknap street. This was followed by a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Webber left on the evening train on their wedding trip and on their return will make this city their home. Both are popular and have resided in Superior for a number of years. Mr. Webber is city salesman for the Smith-Cox company and is also interested in the Sauter-Webber meat company. Mrs. Webber has been employed with the Rufus Stephenson Real Estate and Insurance company for several years.

Mrs. Joseph Kenniff and little daughter, Margaret, West Seventh street, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kenniff, of Eau Claire.

Mrs. Maud Miller has returned to her home in Minneapolis after a visit with her sister, Mrs. B. D. Merrill, Thompson avenue.

Mrs. W. B. McGibbon, Belknap street, was hostess to the members of the Superior Bridge club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. H. Swenson, Hughitt avenue will be hostess to the Agenda Five Hundred club tomorrow afternoon.

The last regular meeting of the Trio club, was Monday afternoon at