
BOWERY CLOTHING CLERK PAYS $10 FINE

Arthur Rose, a clerk in the employ of F. Labovitz, a clothier doing business at 516½ West Superior street, was arrested by Officer Walsh yesterday, charged with disorderly conduct, and Frank Zander was also taken into custody. Labovitz attended as a witness. Rose claimed that he was urging Zander, whom he said loafed in front of the store to go away. The men came to blows. Zander claimed that Rose was trying to get him to enter the store and make purchases. The court fined Rose $15 and Zander was allowed to go unscathed.
