

CHISHOLM SCHOOL EXHIBITS BEGIN

Work of Students in Industrial Departments Will Be Shown for Three Days.

(EAGLE Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, April 4.—The industrial exhibits to be made by the Chisholm public schools will begin tomorrow, the first exhibit being made at the Myers school. The exhibit will be shown at the Myers all day tomorrow and parents and others interested are earnestly invited to call and see it. On Wednesday the exhibit will be given at the Central school in the village, on Thursday at the Monroe school in the Monroe location, and on Friday at the high school in town.

The exhibit will consist of industrial work done by the children of the schools and will also set forth the character of the work which is being attempted in manual training, sewing, etc., by the Chisholm schools.

A musical program will be given at the Myers school and at the Monroe. Friday at the high school in connection with the exhibit the following program will be rendered by the literary society:

Lowell quotations, by the society; class song. Sophomore class; recitation, Ellen Norin; Current Events, Lola Winquist; piano duet, Agnes Alguire and Rose Behr; oration, Arthur Hayes; piano solo, Jean O'Neil; essay, Fanny Ladin; vocal solo, Lottie Strick; recitation, Joseph Cummings.

Debate: Resolved that a constitutional amendment should be secured by which United States senators shall be elected by the direct vote of the people. Affirmative, Esther Sapero, Jeanette Lewis, Theresa Gorman, Victor Riley; negative, Lizzie Strick, Winnifred Beek, Lawrence Winder, Vera Kneebone.

Closing song, Glee club.
