

CORNERSTONE OF JEWISH TEMPLE LAID AT VIRGINIA

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, April 4.—The laying of the cornerstone of the new temple which the Jewish people of Virginia are building was celebrated yesterday and impressed a large crowd that gathered to witness the service.

Rabbi Lefkowitz had charge and delivered an interesting speech. He was assisted by a number of rabbis from out of the city and by a committee made up of Mose Schandelling, John Mesberg, Julius Schandelling, Joseph Roman, H. J. Nathenson, Samuel Lippman and James F. Lavick.

It is expected that the dedicatory services will be held May 15, when the house of worship will be formally opened.
