

PATIENTS DISCHARGED FROM INSANE ASYLUM

Notification has been received by Judge Middlecoff from the Fergus Falls insane asylum that Sarah E. Wright, committed Feb. 18, 1909; Rose Averbook, committed July 26, 1909; Martin Hedberg, committed June 18, 1909, and Carlo A. M. Basso, committed April 21, 1909, have all been discharged from the institution.

Hedberg's discharge amounted to little, however, for Saturday last he started out on a dream tour of the city and landed at the police station imbued with vague ideas that he was practically a millionaire. He also attempted to undress and go to bed on the street. Monday he was examined, declared insane, and Judge Middlecoff ordered him recommitted to the Fergus Falls asylum.
