

TWELVE WILL GRADUATE FROM CLOQUET SCHOOL

(News Tribune Special.)

CLOQUET, Minn., May 16.—Twelve young people, six boys and six girls, will graduate from the Cloquet public schools this year, the graduation exercises taking place in the Nelson opera house on the evening of June 3. Miss Rill Morgan will be the class prophet, Miss Frances McClay, class historian; Ruth M. Swenson, poet; and there will be orations by Clarence Patterson, John Rogentine, Mose Sarchet, and Ned Lewis Summerfield. Other members of the class are Misses Leona Bonnier, Alice Erwin, Dora Nelson, and William Stevens.
