

MARRIAGE LICENSE CLERK AT COURT HOUSE BUSY MAN

Rain that falls from heaven, blessing everyone upon whom it descends, brought so much joy to Duluth yesterday that a large number of prospective grooms and brides drilled into the clerk of court's office and secured marriage licenses.

While the cause of the rush in business is attributed to the kind act of J. Pluviosus there are said to be other reasons.

Those who took out licenses yesterday were: Fred B. Leinas and Marie Petrene Skranstad; Morris Sorkin and Hattie Weinberg; William Lundgren and Wanny Lundberg; Walter Hara and Josephine Kanczak and Anton Hammer and Mrs. Susie Pederson.
