Rabbi Taplin officiated and the wedding march was played by Miss Helen Siegel while the bride was ushered in by her attendants Ray Slonim and Miss Sarah Pomush. The groom was attended by his brother Maurice and James Slonim. After the ceremony, a wedding supper was served to 200 guests among whom were, Henry Beglinger, secretary of the board of public works, and Mrs. Beglinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Siler of Superior.

After the feast the couples danced until midnight when the guests were taken to their homes in automobiles.
