

NASHWAUK SOCIETY HAS PEANUT PARTY

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

NASHWAUK, Oct. 19.—A pleasant surprise party was given for Miss Kittle Ryan at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frank McCullough of Third street, last evening by a number of her young friends. The crowd assembled at the McCullough home at 8:30 o'clock, and the game known as progressive peanut, following by music and dancing was indulged in. The winners of the game were Misses Pearl Gordon and Hilma Johnson and Clarence Aiken and Wilbur Ohles.

Those present were Mesdames C. J. Dicks, William Hayes, Frank McClintock and Frank McCullough, Misses Anna Corser, Cella Anderson, Edith Anderson, Beatrice Thomas, Anna Hewett, Pearl Gordon, Irene Gultar, Violet Harris, Hanna Gustafson, Hilma Johnson, Margeret Brown, Catherine Ryan, Millye Wivell, all of Nashwauk; Eleanor Casey and Sarah Champion of Hibbing, Winifred Kestle of Duluth and Clara Ryan of Ironwood, Mich.; George H. Chalmers, James Wivell, Wilbur Ohles, Amos Brown, Leonard Garstead, Clarence Aiken, Chester Aiken, Alex Jaffe, Joseph Cloon, Lloyd Sullivan, Adolph Johnson and Hal Dicks. Miss Ryan was presented with a very beautiful and costly gift by the young people.