COX-SHANK NUPTIALS TOOK PLACE LAST NIGHT

Entertaining of an Informal Character to Mark Closing Affairs of Week.

The gloomy weather of the last two days has made out-door social affairs impossible, but there have been the ever-present bridge tables to offer consolation for gray skies and driving rain. Several informal bridges took place yesterday afternoon and a number of women met for the regular Thursday afternoon's play at the Northland Country club, followed by a dinner-dance.

The marriage of Miss Alice Beatrice Cox, daughter of Mrs. John Cox of Becker, Minn., and Alonzo Bruce Shank of Gilbert, Minn., took place at the Lester Park Methodist Episcopal church last evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Charles R. Oaten, brother-in-law of the bride, read the service. Just before the ceremony, Miss Edgar G. Smith sang "Oh Promise Me." Miss Clara Watt at the organ and Miss Florence Watt at the piano played the Lohengrin wedding march. The ushers, Lloyd Williams and Frank Le Tourneau, were the first to appear. They were followed by Miss Isadore Dodge, the maid of honor. She was gowned in pink crepe de chine with an overdress of white net with pearl trimmings and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses. The bride's dress was white satin, with an overdress of embroidered silk net. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas. Her veil was held in place by lilies of the valley.

The church was decorated in lilacs, honey suckle and ferns. Following the wedding ceremony, there was a reception at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Oaten. The hour was decorated in white lilacs and smilax. In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Shank were Rev. and Mrs. Oaten, Mrs. John Cox, the bride's mother; Mrs. H. E. Green of Biwabik, a sister of the groom, and N. B. Shank, Biwabik. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. J. E. Watt and Mrs. H. G. Inman. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Pauline Eaton and Miss Ina Shaver, and assisting in the dining room were Miss Vera Cox, Miss Arloine Welsh, Miss Marian Aek, Miss Esther Wood and Miss Emma Lieske. During the evening vocal solos were given by Mrs. E. G. Smith, Miss Eida Luxon and Miss Isadore Dodge. Instrumental numbers were given by Miss Clara Watt and Miss Florence Watt. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Green, Miss Grace Weitzel, Joseph Shank and N. B. Shank of Biwabik; Mrs. John Cox and Miss Vera Cox of Becker. Mr. and Mrs. Shank left last evening for a short wedding trip and will be at home in Gilbert after July 15.

Miss Jennie Marshall entertained a party of 12 guests at dinner. Mrs. T. F. Cole was hostess to 10. Mrs. Corvate Wilson entertained for seven guests and Mrs. J. M. Ferguson also had seven at her table. Other hostesses entertaining seven guests were: Mrs. C. H. Hagley, Mrs. H. H. Myers and Mrs. A. M. Marshall. Others attending the dinner at the club were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Towne, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ames Jr., Mrs. J. B. Cotton, Mrs. B. M. Peyton and William Dalrymple of Minneapolis. A number of young people came out for the dance after dinner. The dining room was charming with a color note of pink, roses and honeysuckle being used, while lilacs were used in the living room where the dancing took place.

The wedding of Miss Ida Jagerson, formerly of Duluth, to Dr. F. W. Pope of Racine, Wis., has been announced to take place at Neenah, Wis., June 26. Miss Jagerson lived at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joseph L. Maitland, while in Duluth. After the wedding ceremony Dr. Pope and his bride will leave for a four months' tour through Europe.

Miss Gladys Gilbert of Superior was the guest of honor at an informal afternoon party given by the mother of her fiance, Mrs. George W. Buck, 1621 East Superior street, yesterday.

Mrs. W. G. LaRue, 2131 East Second street, will be hostess at an informal dinner party at her home this evening. There will be eight guests.

Mrs. J. H. Sullivan, 222 West Third street, and Mrs. T. J. Hyde entertained the Thimble Bee of the Women's Relief corps at the home of Mrs. Sullivan, yesterday afternoon. An amusing contest, in which flowers were used, formed a feature of the afternoon's amusement. Favors were won by Mrs. E. J. Donohue and Mrs. F. Kellogg of Wichita, Kan. Piano numbers—Chopin's "Nocturne," and "Crescendo" (Lasson), were given by Miss Ruth Forbes, and a sketch, "A Newboy's Story," was given by Mrs. Hyde. Folk dancing by Mrs. A. B. Ringsred and Mrs. W. W. Nott completed the program. The rooms were decorated with flags and jars of honeysuckle. There were 20 guests. The corps will meet Thursday afternoon in Memorial hall to hear reports of the delegates to the state convention. Plans have been made for a concert to take place July 15 and 16, with a matinee July 16, for the benefit of the relief fund. Mrs. J. A. Scott and Mrs. W. W. Nott will be the committee on tickets.

Mrs. Charles A. Peterson, 225 West Fifth street, was guest of honor at a party yesterday afternoon, in celebration of her twentieth wedding anniversary. American beauty roses, the gift of the guests, formed the decorations. In a guessing contest, favors were won by Mrs. Mary McGuire. Mrs. Peterson received a handsome gift from those attending, who were: Mrs. F. J. Fleet, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. Morris Thomas, Mrs. J. L. Taylor, Mrs. H. Krantz, Mrs. A. M. Fraser and Miss Elizabeth Dunn.

Miss Tena McLennan of Localah, Ont., and Mrs. Kenneth McGregor, will be guests of honor at a picnic to be given by Clan Stewart in Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gillon's private park, at Lakeside today. There will be 65 guests. Miss McLennan has been a guest at the homes of her cousins, Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. John Drennan, Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. J. Peer and Miss Margaret Ross during the year and will leave next week for her home, accompanied by Mrs. McGregor.

The marriage of Miss Florence McDonald of Detroit, Mich., to John Albert Peterson of this city took place last evening at the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, 422 North Twenty-seventh avenue West. Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor of the First Swedish Baptist church, officiating. Miss L. G. Algulre attended the bride and E. R. Broman was groomsmen.

Mrs. Wilson Palmer of Lakeside will entertain at a lawn party Thursday afternoon and evening June 26. The hostess will be assisted by a group of musicians who will give informal musical programs during the receiving hours. Mrs. Ed Smith will give a group of songs. Mrs. Earl Bradley will play piano selections and Miss Cecelia Fennel will give violin numbers.

Mrs. L. A. Cox, 1712 West First street, will entertain Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Natalie Craig, whose marriage to George Treilford of this city will take place next month. The guests will be members of the Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church.

A dancing party will be given at the Oatka branch of the Boat club by the Covenant Order of B'nai B'rith, Monday evening, June 22. The committee consists of C. D. Oreckovskys, Louis Zalk and Dr. Samuel Gross. They are planning a program of dances.
