

140 "GRADERS" FINISH COURSE

Midyear Classes Dismissed Informally at Various Schools, With One Exception.

SOCIAL EVENTS FEATURE THEIR GRADUATION DAY

Majority of Students Are to Continue Their Education in Higher Schools of City.

About 140 happy boys and girls of Superior were presented with diplomas of graduation from the various public schools of the city, and passed their last day in grade schools yesterday. Some of them are done with the "dear old golden school days" forever, but the majority intend to finish their education in the high schools of the city.

But one school, the Bryant, held elaborate exercises, it being the custom for the February classes to join with the June division in such entertainments. The principals of the various schools addressed the pupils in an informal manner before dismissing them and most of the classes also held parties in honor of the occasion.

Twenty-five pupils of the Peter Cooper school were presented with diplomas and held a party at the school building last night. The graduates are: Carl Anderson, president; Morris Lenihan, vice president; Lillie Kronberg, secretary; Herbert Anderson, Charles Dhooge, Patrick Flaherty, Arthur Peterson, Arne Sanderson, Wallace Waseen, Albin Wiberg, Lillian Anderson, Emma Benson, Anna Flynn, Florence Johnson, Estella Knox, Florence Larson, Jennie McAllister, Sarah McAllister, Bettie Olsen, Lillian Ossell, Jennette Peters, Verna Peters, Ruth Schuster, Mildred Westlund and Nellie Olsen. The class colors are lavender and white. The class motto is "Courage in Difficulties."

At Nelson Dewey.

A program of games, followed by refreshments and the presentation of diplomas by Principal A. T. Conrad featured the graduation of 19 students from the Nelson Dewey grade school. Those graduating are: Charlotte Alverd, Helen Blanchard, Flora Christopherson, Majorie Gile, Geraldine Hiland, Ester M. Holt, Lucile Thompson, Caroline Williams, Mary Zimboski, Rena Hanson, Arnold Dahl, Henry Nelson, Louis Nelson, Herman Olson, Arthur Roberts, Roy Simmonds, Clarence Swanson, Robt. Jordan and August Kunert. The class colors are gold and gray. The class motto is "Climb Tho' the Rocks be Rugged," and the class flower is the Waron Ward rose.

Nineteen students of the Timothy O. Howe school received diplomas and were given words of advice by Miss Lura Runkel, principal. The following students were graduated: Fern Gibson, Aget Luroff, Vivian Forrest, Lilly Bergstrom, Bernadette F. White, Francis Rieckert, Edna Gross, Margaret Simon, Berthel Thompson, Hazel Lindegren, Edith Johnson, Laura Jermstad, Oscar Knutson, Hector Berg, Wm. Greenseth, Arthur Anderson, Raymond Aest, John Galvin and Jacob Froyen.

Carpenters Plan Party.

No special exercises featured the graduation of 12 students from the Matt Carpenter school. The class will hold a party at the school building Friday. The following leave school: Evelyn S. Greenblatt, president; Sarah Harris, Hilda Irene Koski, Beatrice C. Patterson, Elsie Weinstein, Antoine Richards, secretary; Albin Nerd, Fred Nelson, Isadore Greenberg, Arthur M. Dahl, treasurer; Severine Carlson and Lewis Beckwith. The class colors are silver gray and old rose.

Ericsson Class of 15.

Fifteen pupils received their diplomas from the John Ericsson school. They follow: Elsie Kauer, Ester Gilbert, Sophie Almo, Ruth E. Johnston, Einer Finstad, Mabel Dahlberg, Blanch Hanson, Lily A. Setterstrom, Arthur E. Makie, Charles Kelly, Alfred Finstad, Abraham S. Jaffe, Rudolph Swanson, Oscar Haglund and Henry Jenson.

An elaborate musical and literary program was given at the Bryant school Thursday evening in honor of the graduating class. The eight graduates were presented with diplomas by Principal C. G. Wade of the Superior high school. The following received their certificates: Clara Rasmussen, president; Ernest Waite, vice president; Zora Guenard, secretary; Arndt Nelson, treasurer; Violetta Malchow, Carl Jacobsen, Walter La Hays and Erwin Potter.
