

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF LIFE

NORMAL NOTES

The program for the chapel exercise on Tuesday was:

"Italian Hymn" (F. Giardino); reading from the "Psalter"; response, "Still, Still with Thee" (Harriet Beecher Stowe); "Loving Kindness" (W. Caldwell).

At the close of the regular exercise the junior kindergarten girls gave the following program:

"The Tea Kettle Song" (Gaynor); "The Sweet Pea Ladies" (Gaynor); "Mistress Mary" from "Lullies and Lyrics" (Gaynor); "The Regiment" (Gaynor); In China, "Art Song Cycle" (Miesner); folk dance, "This Is the Way a Laddie Should Bow"; folk dance, "Lullies and Lyrics"; folk dance, "Dance of Greeting."

A number of folk dances were given by the children of the second grade.

On Tuesday Della Stanaway and Catherine Burke entertained at a pastry spread. The guests were: Esther Danberg, Nellie Erwin and Mercedes James.

Anna Erikson has returned to school after a long illness.

Dr. W. A. Robertson of Crookston visited his daughter, Ethel, on Saturday.

Elizabeth Olson is visiting in Minneapolis for the week end.

Several new students have enrolled for the spring term. Among them are Edith Ellefson, Ely; Lyla Noiseau, Calumet, Mich.; Frances Spenser, Garynum, and Blanche Bushnell, Rhinelander, Wis.

A number of girls gave a "spread" in the lunchroom on Friday. Those present were Betty Fontana, Esther Klatsky, Mary Simon, Fanny Karou, Florence Millavetz, Selma Oreckovsky and Sarah Kaner.

Tuesday evening Leish Aiken entertained in honor of Bernice Provinski. The guests were Margaret McCrum, Ruth Monger, Elizabeth Olson, Margaret Gleason and Veronica O'Hara.

Winnifred Beek went to Chisholm Saturday.

J. Kaner of Cloquet visited his daughter, Sarah, Thursday.

Miss Edol Ellefson of Ely visited with her sister, Edith, at Washburn hall, Saturday.

Tuesday evening Edith Resseier entertained in honor of Grace McDonald. Other guests were Frances Finnegan, Gertrude Shook, Esther Englebretson, Helen Daily and Lillian Riedesel.

Grace Croogrove is spending the week end at her home at Embarras.

Betty Fontana of Superior visited the school Friday.

Thursday evening after study hour the girls of Washburn hall took a trip through the Yellowstone National park by means of the mirror-oscope, which was operated by Mrs. Milne.