

Chicago Guest Will Be Entertained on Visit.

Miss Ida Berkson, 613 East First street, will entertain the members of the Osewa and Azordelyn clubs at her home tonight in compliment to her house guest, Miss Eunice Rosman of Chicago.

Miss Hattie Markowitz will be hostess at a luncheon at the Glass Block tea rooms Saturday in honor of the visitor and Friday night Miss Rose Coran will give a theater party at the Rex in compliment to Miss Rosman.

D. W. Montgomery will be taken to St. Mary's hospital this morning. He is suffering from nervous prostration. Mr. Montgomery has been associated with David Quail & Co. for 29 years as an expert accountant and he has won a high place in the esteem of his employers and his townspeople.

The women of Park Point Mission guild will have a home baking and fancy work sale Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. O'Deil, 3330 Minnesota avenue. All those who have promised contributions will kindly send them in before 1 o'clock on the day of the sale.

Earl Wolgamott of Waterloo, Ia., is the guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fay R. Smalley, 1725 Jefferson street.

The Osewa club met last night at the home of Miss Rose Simon, 420 East Fourth street, and decided to entertain at an informal party Christmas day at Talmud Torah clubrooms.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Oreckovsky, 18 East Fourth street, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Leiberman and family of Thief River Falls, Minn. returned last night.

Mrs. E. J. Manske, 521 East Sixth street, will be hostess to the Ladies' Mission society of St. Paul's Evangelical church.

Mrs. W. E. Brown, 1116 East Fifth street, will be hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. E. D. Ranck will tell of her work among the natives of South Africa.

The Ladies' Aid society of First Christian church will have an all-day meeting today in the church parlors. Members are asked to take the articles they are making for the Christmas sale. Mrs. A. H. Wallace, Mrs. Louis Waldon and Mrs. R. E. Stewart will be the hostesses.

Mrs. W. B. Brinkman, 2116 East Third street, will be hostess to the Woman's alliance of Unitarian church this afternoon, when arrangements will be made for the Christmas sale and supper.

Dwight E. Woodbridge arrived last night from the east, where he has been visiting his daughter, Miss Lydia Woodbridge, at Simmons college in Boston, to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Woodbridge.

Owing to the ill health of Miss Frances Woodbridge, who is at Columbus, Ga., it is uncertain whether she can attend the funeral of her mother.

Mrs. Tom Miller, 1014 East Third street, is the guest of her mother in St. Louis. She will return in two weeks.