

SOLOIST TO APPEAR IN CHURCH RECITAL

EDWARD G. MULLEN.

Edward G. Mullen will appear in a recital assisted by George Seymour, pianist, Anthony Yano, violinist, Miss Lucile Schook, reader, and Miss Clara Frances Goodhand, accompanist, at Holy Trinity English Lutheran church, John avenue and Eighteenth street, Tuesday night.

The following program has been arranged:

Piano, "Fantasia in C Minor" Op. 18 (Mozart), George Seymour; vocal (a) "Requiem" (Homer), (b) "Jean" (Burleigh), (c) "When Song Is Sweet" (Sans Souci), Edward G. Mullen; violin "Ave Maria" (Schubert-Wilhelm), Anthony Yano; reading "Sally Anne's Experience" (Emma Calvert Hall), Miss Lucile Schook; vocal (a) "Star" (Rogers), (b) "Absent" (Metcalf), (c) "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" (Old Irish), Edward G. Mullen; violin "Thais Meditation" (Massenet-Marsick), Anthony Yano; vocal (a) "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" (Ambrose), (b) "The Lord Is My Light" (Allisten), Edward G. Mullen; piano "Minuet" (Paderewski), George Seymour.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schweiger, 1211 Grand avenue, entertained at a family dinner Thanksgiving day. A potted plant surrounded by miniature turkeys formed the centerpiece for the table. The other decorations were in red and green. Covers were laid for 17.

Mrs. Bernard Lilly and granddaughter, Helen, of Cold Water, Mich., are in Superior as the guests of Mrs. Lilly's daughter, Mrs. Gay Claire. The visitors will be here for a month.

Miss Clara K. Zeichik of Des Moines, Iowa, and Abraham Averbook of this city were married last Wednesday afternoon at the Beth Haknaseth Hagdola. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Zeichak, the bride's father. Miss Ida Oreck of Duluth was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Rae Zurosky and Miss Esther Viener, both of Duluth, and Miss Helen Weingarten. The groomsmen were Samuel Nides and Frederick Deneiko of Duluth and Herman Aaronson. Morris Altman of Duluth was best man. Little Miss Anita Averbook was the flower girl, while Fay Zeichik, sister of the bride, was the ring bearer. Following the ceremony in the church a supper and dance was held in Tower hall. More than 600 attended the affair. The couple will make their home in this city. Mr. Averbook is connected with the Abby pharmacy.