

MISS ASKE BRIDE OF A. TAYLOR

Young Couple Quietly Married at Home of Bride's Parents—Only Few Guests Attend.

One of the pretty weddings of the early part of June took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Aske, 5736 East Superior street, when their daughter, Miss Eleanor Frances Aske, became the bride of Asher Taylor Jr., of this city. Rev. Charles N. Thorp of Pilgrim Congregational church read the service at 4 o'clock in the presence of immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. The ceremony took place in the music room, which was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and Shasta daisies. Mrs. Allen J. Greenfield, sister of the bride, played the Lohengrin wedding march. There were no attendants.

The bride's gown was of white pussy-willow taffeta, with an overdress of net trimmed in silver lace. She wore a veil and held a shower bouquet of bride roses and ferns.

The living room and library were decorated with pink carnations and ferns, and in the dining room white sweet peas and amaranth were used in decorating. A wedding supper was served. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Muriel Ebert, Miss Rowna Hanson, Miss Grace Smith and Miss Marian Aske.

Miss Oscar Bergh of New York city, an aunt of the bride, was the only out-of-town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for a short wedding trip and will be at home after July at their new home, 4320 Laverne street.
