WOMEN. MEN WILL COMBAT FOR SPELLING SUPREMACY

Are men better spellers than Samuel Gross, Jacob Garon, Toby other in the art of spelling will be bers of Covenant lodge, B'nai B'rith, will meet 25 women of the Council berg. of Jewish Women in an old-fashloned spelling bee at Covenant hall. 12 East Superlor street. J. H. Bentley, superintendent of

The supremacy of one sex over the women?

schools, has prepared a list of 1,000 words to be spelled during the contest, while Frank Crassweller, pres-Ment of the school board, will act as the school teacher and call off the words.

Labovits, Morris Mark, Charles D. settled this evening, when 25 mem- Oreckovsky, Percy Oreck, Abe Solon, Joseph Weiner and Harry E. Wein-Miss Anna Mark is captain of the women's team, which follows: Mrs. S. Polans, Mrs. Jacob Garon, Mrs. M. "ook, Mrs. D. Freimuth, Mrs. Lyle Oreck, Mrs. Morris Altman, Mrs. A.

Garon, Charles W. Green, A. B. Kapplin. Rabbl J. Lebendiger, Maurice

Julius Slegel, Mrs. Oxman, Mrs. J. Leuri, Mrs. M. D. Nides, Mrs. H. V. Josephy, Miss Appa Mark, Miss The men's team, headed by Samuel Bertha Mendelsohn. Mies Lillian Gofen follows: M. E. Altman, Jesse Karon, Miss Mae Kilen, Miss Alice Cohen, George Casmir, Harry W. Wetzler, Miss Esther Abrahamson, Davis, Herman Elevitch, Ralph Ele- Miss Ida Berkson, Miss Mayme Welnvitch, Abe Feldman, D. P. Fieldman, berg, Miss Lillian Levy and Mrs. C. Bugo Freimuth, Louis Freimuth, Dr. A. Saksonoff.

A. Friss, Mrs. I. Lebendiger, Mrs. A.

Davidson, Mrs. S. Hirshfield, Mrs.