

Club Notes

A FURTHER extension of time has been made by the Woman's exchange for articles which will be brought in for sale to the last of the week. The consignment committee requests that all such articles be brought in promptly, marked with the name and address of the maker and the price to be asked, to the Exchange shop in the Chamber of Commerce building.

AN ADDITIONAL feature of interest to the bazaar which the Sisterhood of the Hebrew Institute will give at 13 East Superior street, June 6, 7 and 8, is the fact that there will be tables at which parties can be made up for bridge during the afternoons. Luncheon will be served and there will be music during the entire time.

Famous Jewish dishes will appear on the menu, such as "strudel," "bagel," "lockschen," which can be ordered. Mrs. Lyle A. Oreck is chairman general of the committee and besides other chairmen, Mrs. H. H. Segal is chairman for the downtown donations.
