

Police: Arrest Made in Duluth Synagogue Fire

Adas Israel Congregation synagogue fire on Monday | Photo: WDIO-TV

Baihly Warfield

Updated: September 13, 2019 04:41 PM

DULUTH, Minn. - Police announced Friday afternoon there has been an arrest in connection with the Adas Israel synagogue fire.

Police and fire investigators are planning a press briefing at 11 Saturday morning regarding the arrest and the investigation. A Duluth city spokesperson said they would not provide details on when and where the arrest was made, who was arrested, or how the fire may have started until Saturday.

The synagogue burned down Monday morning.

Tuesday afternoon, Police Chief Mike Tusken said 20 people were working on the case, reviewing surveillance footage and interviewing witnesses.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives also assisted in the investigation.

This is a developing story. Check back for updates.

Police: Arrest Made in Duluth Synagogue Fire

Baihly Warfield

Updated: September 13, 2019 06:20 PM

DULUTH, Minn. - Police announced Friday afternoon there has been an arrest in connection with the Adas Israel synagogue fire.

Police and fire investigators are planning a press briefing at 11 o'clock Sunday morning regarding the arrest and the investigation. The news conference was initially discovered for Saturday but was moved to Sunday due to the Sabbath.

A Duluth city spokesperson said they would not provide details on when and where the arrest was made, who was arrested, or how the fire may have started until Sunday's news conference.

Adas Israel Congregation synagogue fire on Monday

WDIO-TV

The synagogue burned down Monday morning, Sept. 9.

Tuesday afternoon, Police Chief Mike Tusken said 20 people were working on the case, reviewing surveillance footage and interviewing witnesses.

The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives also assisted in the investigation.

This is a developing story. Check back for updates.